Cyber Insurance Safeguard Your Finances

Securing our personal information in the digital age is more important than ever. However, even the most guarded systems can be targeted by hackers putting things like passwords, credit card numbers, bank accounts and social security numbers at risk of theft.

On average, there is a cyber-attack every 39 seconds and more than 1 in 3 Americans report having been hacked or having their identity stolen. The average cost of a loss is more than $4,000 per occurrence.

You can protect yourself from potential financial losses with affordable cyber insurance.
